Pickle in BBQ? It shouldn't work... but it does. On burgers, pulled pork, chicken, pizza, even grandma's meatloaf.

Turn up the heat,
Walter's favorite

The Pequin pepper heat shows up hotter than a jalapeño. Then, 10 seconds later, it's gone. What comes next is a sweet citrus experience with a subtle nutty finish. It's Walter's favorite pepper for a reason.

Forward

You already reach for garlic in almost everything. Big and garlic forward the way it should be, roasted down so it hits bold up front and finishes clean instead of lingering with an aftertaste no one wants.

Perfect on ribs, pulled pork, chicken, fries or anything that needs a little glow-up.
